

FOUR STROKES PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: September 9, 2026

Last Updated: September 9, 2026

Four Strokes (“Four Strokes,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information of players, parents and guardians, judges, coaches, event organizers, facilities, and other users of our services. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and protect information when you use the Four Strokes website, mobile application, tournaments, competitions, certification programs, and related services (collectively, the “Services”). By using the Services, you acknowledge the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

1. Information We Collect

Account Information

When you create or manage an account, we may collect information such as name, email address, username, password or authentication information, date of birth or age information, account type or role, and team, club, school, or facility affiliation.

Player and Competition Information

When participating in Four Strokes matches, leagues, tournaments, or other competitions, we may collect player name or display name, team or club, competition registrations, match participation, match results, scores and points, rankings, tournament results, achievements, competition history, and other statistics associated with participation in Four Strokes. Certain competition information, including names or display names, team affiliations, rankings, scores, and results, may be visible to other users or publicly displayed as part of the competitive features of Four Strokes.

Judge and Official Information

If you apply to become a Four Strokes Judge or official, we may collect name, contact information, certification status, certification exam results, judge identification information, event applications, match assignments, officiating history, submitted match results, payment-related information, ratings, reports, or administrative records associated with officiating.

Event and Tournament Information

When you register for, organize, host, or participate in an event, we may collect event registration information, team and participant information, event location, facility information, registration status, competition results, scheduling information, and organizer or facility contact information.

Location Information

Four Strokes may use location information to provide location-based features, including our interactive map for discovering matches, tournaments, facilities, or available judging opportunities. Depending on your device settings and permissions, location information may include an approximate location or, where necessary and expressly permitted, more precise device location. You may control location permissions through your device settings. Some location-based features may not function properly if location access is disabled.

Payment Information

When you make a purchase, pay an entry fee, purchase a membership, receive compensation as a judge, or complete another financial transaction, payment information may be processed by our third-party payment providers. Four Strokes may receive transaction-related information such as transaction amount, payment status, transaction date, billing information, limited payment method information, and payout status. We generally do not directly store complete credit or debit card numbers when payments are processed by third-party payment processors.

Device and Usage Information

When you use our website or app, certain information may be collected automatically, including IP address, device type, operating system, browser type, app version, device identifiers, pages or screens viewed, features used, approximate location derived from IP address, dates and times of access, crash and diagnostic information, and referring pages or websites. We may use cookies, software development kits (SDKs), analytics technologies, and similar tools to collect this information.

Communications

If you contact Four Strokes, we may retain your communications and the information you provide to us, including customer support requests, reports, feedback, and other correspondence.

2. How We Use Information

We may use information collected through the Services to create and maintain accounts; provide and operate the Four Strokes platform; register players and teams for competitions; organize matches, tournaments, leagues, and fundraising events; calculate and display scores, rankings, results, and statistics; administer judge certification exams; verify judge certification status; allow certified judges to locate and apply for officiating opportunities; assign judges to events; record official match and tournament results; process purchases, registration fees, memberships, and other transactions; facilitate payments or payouts to eligible judges or other authorized persons; provide customer support; send service-related notifications; send marketing communications where permitted by law; improve the Four Strokes website, application, gameplay, and competition systems; detect fraud, abuse, cheating, or violations of our rules; protect the safety, security, and integrity of our Services; enforce our Terms of Service, competition rules, and other policies; and comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

3. Rankings, Results, and Public Information

Four Strokes is designed as a competitive swimming game and tournament platform. Certain information may therefore be visible to other users or the public, including player or team names, display names, team or club affiliations, scores, rankings, match results, tournament placements, achievements, and competition history. Users should understand that information designated as public may be viewed by other people and may remain in historical competition records. Where appropriate, Four Strokes may provide privacy controls or use limited identifiers for younger participants.

4. How We Share Information

Service Providers. We may use companies that provide hosting, payment processing, analytics, email delivery, communications, security, customer support, and other technical or operational services.

Event Organizers and Facilities. Information necessary to administer a match, tournament, certification, judging assignment, or other event may be shared with the relevant organizers, clubs, facilities, coaches, or officials.

Other Users and the Public. Competition information designated as public may appear on rankings, leaderboards, tournament pages, player profiles, event results, or similar areas of the Services.

Legal and Safety Purposes. We may disclose information when we reasonably believe disclosure is required by law, legal process, government request, or to protect the rights, property, safety, or security of Four Strokes, our users, or others.

Business Transactions. Information may be transferred as part of a merger, acquisition, financing, restructuring, sale of assets, or similar business transaction, subject to applicable law.

We do not sell personal information in exchange for money.

5. Children's Privacy

Four Strokes may be used in connection with youth swimming programs and competitions. We take children's privacy seriously. Where applicable law requires parental or guardian consent before collecting personal information from a child, Four Strokes will seek the required consent or structure the relevant service so that the information is provided and controlled by a parent, guardian, club, or other authorized adult.

We may limit the information collected from younger users and may restrict certain account, communication, location, profile, or public-display features based on age. Parents and legal guardians may contact Four Strokes to request access to, correction of, or deletion of personal information relating to their child, subject to applicable law and legitimate recordkeeping requirements.

Four Strokes does not knowingly collect personal information from children in a manner prohibited by applicable children's privacy laws. If we discover that information has been collected from a child without legally required authorization, we will take appropriate steps to delete or otherwise address that information.

6. Cookies and Analytics

Our website and application may use cookies, SDKs, analytics tools, and similar technologies to keep users signed in, remember preferences, understand how the Services are used, measure performance, diagnose technical problems, improve functionality, and protect against fraud and abuse. Where required by law, we will provide appropriate choices regarding non-essential cookies or similar technologies.

7. Data Security

Four Strokes uses reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards designed to protect personal information. However, no website, mobile application, network, or electronic storage system can guarantee absolute security. Users are responsible for protecting their account credentials and should notify us if they believe their account has been compromised.

8. Data Retention

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide the Services, maintain accounts, maintain legitimate competition and certification records, process transactions, resolve disputes, prevent fraud and abuse, enforce agreements, and satisfy legal, tax, accounting, and regulatory requirements. Different categories of information may be retained for different periods. Some competition results, rankings, and tournament records may be retained as historical records even after an account is closed, where permitted by law.

9. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on where you live, you may have rights regarding your personal information, including the right to request access, correction, deletion, or a copy of certain personal information; object to or restrict certain processing; withdraw consent where processing is based on consent; opt out of certain marketing communications; and appeal certain privacy-request decisions where applicable. These rights are subject to applicable law and certain exceptions. We may need to verify your identity before completing certain requests.

10. Marketing Communications

If you subscribe to Four Strokes promotional communications, we may send information about products, tournaments, competitions, events, memberships, promotions, or other Four Strokes services. You may unsubscribe from promotional emails using the unsubscribe mechanism contained in those communications. You may still receive necessary transactional or service-related communications.

11. Third-Party Services and Links

The Services may integrate with or contain links to third-party websites, payment processors, maps, social platforms, facilities, or other services. Those third parties may have their own privacy policies and practices. Four Strokes is not responsible for the privacy practices of independent third parties, and users should review their policies before providing personal information.

12. International Users

Four Strokes may be accessed from different countries. Where permitted by applicable law, information may be processed or stored in countries other than the country where you live. When required, we will use appropriate safeguards for international transfers of personal information.

13. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically as Four Strokes develops new products, features, competitions, or services or as legal requirements change. When we make material changes, we may provide notice through the Four Strokes website, application, email, or another appropriate method. The “Last Updated” date at the beginning of this Privacy Policy indicates when the policy was most recently revised.

14. Contact Us

Questions regarding this Privacy Policy or Four Strokes privacy practices should be directed to website form:

<https://swim4strokes.com/claims/>

For privacy-related requests, please include sufficient information for us to identify your account and understand your request.